Council Continues Development of 2014 Strategic Action Plan

Olympia — On Sept. 9, the Washington Student Achievement Council will hold a meeting to further consider policy and fiscal recommendations for the 2014 Strategic Action Plan.

The plan will propose recommendations to meet Washington’s two statewide educational attainment goals for 2023:

- All adults, ages 25 to 44, in Washington will have a high school diploma or equivalent.
- At least 70 percent of Washington adults, ages 25 to 44, will have a postsecondary credential.

The 2014 Strategic Action Plan’s recommendations will align with the council’s 2013 Roadmap Report. The council will adopt the 2014 Strategic Action Plan this fall in anticipation of delivery to the Legislature and the governor in December.

The meeting will occur via teleconference for council members. The public is invited to attend the meeting at the offices of the Washington Student Achievement Council. The meeting will be from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

All materials will be available online the day of the meeting.

Meeting location: The Washington Student Achievement Council, 917 Lakeridge Way SW, Olympia, Wash., 98502.

About the Washington Student Achievement Council: Established as a new cabinet-level state agency on July 1, 2012, the council provides strategic planning, oversight and advocacy to support increased student success and higher levels of educational attainment in Washington. The council proposes improvements and innovations to meet the evolving needs of students, employers and the educational community. In recognition of the economic, social and civic benefits of public education, the council advocates for increased financial support and civic commitment to ensure a thriving Washington.

The nine-member Council includes five citizens (including a current student) and one representative from each of Washington's four major educational sectors. Find us online at www.wsac.wa.gov, on Twitter @WSACouncil, and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/WSACouncil.
