Council to discuss dual credit at September Meeting

Olympia—The Washington Student Achievement Council will meet on Sept. 2. Members will review recommendations to streamline and improve dual-credit programs and discuss including dual credit in the 2017-19 Strategic Action Plan. This plan will make short-term budget and policy recommendations to increase educational attainment. The council will send a final plan to the Legislature in December 2016.

All materials will be available online the day of the meeting.

About the Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC)

The Washington Student Achievement Council is committed to increasing educational opportunities and attainment in Washington. The Council has three main functions:

1. Lead statewide strategic planning to increase educational attainment.
2. Administer programs that help people access and pay for college.
3. Advocate for the economic, social, and civic benefits of higher education.

The Council has nine members. Four members represent each of Washington's major education sectors: four-year public baccalaureates, four-year private colleges, public community and technical colleges, and K-12 public schools. Five are citizen members, including one current student.
